Fulcher, Harris are wed

Miss Mildred Agnes (Cotton) Fulcher and Mr. John Thomas Harris, III were united in marriage on Saturday, July 7, 1984, at two o'clock in the afternoon at First Assembly of God Church in Lynchburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anne Fulcher of Lynchburg and the late William Thomas Fulcher. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Harris, Jr., of Lynchburg.

The Rev. Jim Blair, pastor of the church, officiated the ceremony. A program of music was presented by Mrs. Debbie Fisher, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, George L. Fulcher of Casselberry, Florida.

The bride wore a white princess gown of satin and lace with a high Victorian neckline accented with pearls. The skirt was full with a chapel length train. She had a fitted headpiece of lace and adorned with pearls with a white bow of pearls on side and a front and back veil. She carried a bouquet of satin burgundy, pink and white roses, baby's breath and white cockashells.

Miss Emily Sue Fulcher was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor length princess gown of pink chiffon and satin. She carried a fan with an arrangement of satin roses of pink, burgundy roses, baby's breath and greens with pink streamers. Her headpiece was a crown of miniature flowers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sheila A. Fulcher, sister of the bride; Miss Lisa Harris, sister of the bridegroom, both of Lynchburg and Miss Alison Marshall of Nyack, N.Y. Their gowns were similar to the maid of honor as were their bouquets and fans.

The groom and groomsmen were attired in silver grey tuxedos with the groom wearing tails. The groom's boutonnaire was a white silk rose with greens. The groomsmen's boutonnaires were burgundy silk roses with greens.

Mr. Tom Tyree of Lynchburg was his friend's best man. Ushers were Mr. Evan Thompson of Appomattox, brother-in-law of the bride; Mike Mann of Lynchburg and Roger Gilmore of Richmond.

Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Crystal Blair, the pastor's wife. Mrs. Cyndie Montgomery, friend of the bride, attended the register.

The mother of the bride wore a mint green floor length gown and a corsage of white silk roses and baby's breath. The mother of the groom wore a lavender floor length gown and a corsage of white silk roses and baby's breath.

After the ceremony, a reception, given by the family, was held in the fellowship hall. Mrs. Delores Bell, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Bell, cousins of the bride, Miss Elizabeth J. Thompson and Mr. Sonny Martin, nephew of the bride, assisted with the reception. Mrs. Joy Tyree and Mrs. Debbie Mann assisted with the reception.

The bride is a graduate of Lynchburg College and is employed by Amherst County School System and Bowen Jewelry Co.

The groom is an employee of Mead Paperboard Products.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the couple will reside in Lynchburg.
